LARGE CORN CROP.

The Farmers Could From the Proceeds of 1904 Pay the National Debt.

SECRETARY WILSON'S REPORT.

There Was an Extensive Cooperation With Agricultural Stations During the Past Year.

Horses and Mules Reached the Highest Point This Year, With an Aggregate Value Exceeding 1,354 Million Dollars.

Washington, Nov. 30.—The secretary of agriculture has transmitted his eighth annual report to the president.

In opening his report the secretary enumerates some of the more important features of the year's work. Among them are extensive co-operation with agricultural stations; the taking of preliminary steps to conduct feeding and breeding experiments; the war waged against the cotton boll weevil and against cattle manges; plans for education of engineers in road building; the production of a hardy orange, a hybrid of the Florida orange and the Japanese trifoliata; valuable research in successful shipping of fruit abroad; the value of nitrogen-fixing bacteria; successful introduction of plants suited to light rainfall areas; establishment of pure food standards; the extension of agricultural education in primary and secondary schools; the extension of instruction to our island possessions to enable them to supply the country with $200,000,000 worth of domestic products, now imported from abroad. He then proceeds to discuss the place of agriculture in the country's industrial life.

Some Astonishing Figures.

The corn crop of 1904 yields a farm value greater than ever before. The farmers could from the proceeds of this single crop pay the national debt, the interest thereon for one year, and still have enough left to pay a considerable portion of the government's yearly expenses. The cotton crop, valued for lint and seed at 600 millions, comes second, while hay and wheat contend for the third place. Combined, these two crops will about equal in value the corn crop. Notwithstanding the wheat crop shows a lower production than any year since 1900, the farm value is the highest since 1881. Potatoes and barley reached their highest production in 1904; save in 1902 the oat crop was never so large by 60 million bushels. The present crop of rice promises a yield of 900 million pounds—300 million more than ever before.

Horses and mules reach the highest point this year, with an aggregate value exceeding 1,354 million dollars. On the other hand cattle, sheep and hogs all show a slight decline.

The Farmers' Hens.

The steady advance in poultry leads to some astonishing figures. The farmers' hens now produce 12-3 billions of dozens of eggs and at the high average price of the year the hens during their busy season lay enough eggs in a single month to pay the year's interest on the national debt.

After a careful estimate of the value of the products of the farm during 1904, made within the census scope, it is safe to place the amount at 4,900 million dollars after excluding the value of farm crops fed to live stock in order to avoid duplication of values. This is 9.65 per cent. above the product of 1903, and 31.28 per cent. above that of the census year 1899.

Some comparisons are necessary to the realization of such an unthinkable value, aggregating nearly five billions of dollars. The farmers of this country have in two years produced wealth exceeding the output of all the gold mines of the entire world since Columbus discovered America. This year's product is over six times the amount of the capital stock of all national banks, it lacks but three-fourths of a billion dollars of the value of the manufactures of 1900, less the cost of materials used; it is three times the gross earnings from the operations of the railways, and four times the value of all minerals produced in this country.

Exports of Farm Products.

The year 1904 keeps well up to the average of exports of farm products during the five years 1899-1903, amounting to over $59 millions, while the average for the five years was nearly $65 millions. During the last 15 years the balance of trade in favor of this country, all articles considered, exceeded 4,384 million dollars, but taking farm products alone, these showed a balance in our favor of more than 5,300 millions.

Reviewing the increase in farm capital, the secretary estimates it conservatively at 2,000 million dollars within four years—this without recognizing the marked increase in the value of land during the past two years.

A TOWN BOMBARDED.

Not Less Than 500 Shots Were Fired at Zeigler, Ill.

Benton, Ill., Nov. 30.—Zeigler was fired upon Monday night from sundown to daylight. It is estimated that no less than 500 shots were fired at the town. The four Gatling guns belonging to the coal company was turned on in full force in the direction from which the shots came. The town was completely surrounded and the firing came from every quarter. Assistant Adj. Gen. Reece and the Carbondale militia company arrived in Zeigler Tuesday and Gen. Reece will remain several days to investigate the situation. It is thought that still more troops will be brought.

Examination of the ground Tuesday morning showed that the men who were firing have powerful guns. They were stationed from one-half to three-quarters of a mile from the town. Almost a bushel of empty shells of every size and make were found in the woods. A trail of blood was found on a rail fence and from this it is supposed that at least one person was wounded. Further trouble is anticipated.

ACCIDENT ON A STEAMER.

One Man Fatally and Two Men and a Boy Seriously Injured.

New York, Nov. 30.—The Kaiser Wilhelm II. Tuesday put in at the quarantine station and many of the nearly 800 immigrants on board had crowded to the forward deck. While the attention of the man in charge of the steam derrick was diverted for a moment, one of the steerage passengers carelessly pushed a lever and an instant later the immense steel block loosed from its fastening by the derrick fell in the midst of the densely crowded mass of humanity.

Felix Langalis, a Russian, was struck fairly on the head and fatally hurt and two other men and a boy were badly injured. Langalis died soon after the steamer reached her dock at Hoboken. The three persons injured were taken to a hospital. A good-sized purse was made up by the cabin passengers for the benefit of those injured in the accident.

Herrick to compel him to call a special election to choose a successor to Senator C. A. Judson, of Sandusky, and one against Attorney General Ellis to compel him to sue Senator Judson to recover the second year's salary, which he drew before resigning to accept Zurburst's place as collector at Sandusky. The supreme court gave consent to the filing of the mandamus suit against the governor, and it was filed. The style is Edmund H. Zurburst vs. Myron T. Herrick.

AN ORDER ISSUED.

Attorney General of the United States Declares Guessing Contests to Be Lotteries.

THE POSTMASTER GENERAL ACTS.

Mail Addressed to a Person or Company Engaged in Them Will Be Returned Stamped "Fraudulent."

No Scheme Involving the Plan Ruled Against By the Attorney General Will Hereafter Be Allowed to Begin Operations.

Washington, Nov. 30.—The attorney general at the cabinet meeting Tuesday submitted an important opinion in regard to all guessing contests in newspapers, magazines, etc., declaring all such to be lotteries. The postmaster general will act upon this opinion and debar all papers, etc., publishing such contests from the mails. Postmaster General Wynne said that he would not act precipitately in the matter, but would give each case a hearing before issuing orders against them.

The attorney general, in his opinion, says that in each contest thousands had invested small sums in hope and expectation that luck would enable them to win large returns. "A comparatively small percentage," he says, "of the participants will realize their expectations. Thousands will get nothing. They—the contests—are in effect lotteries under the guise of 'guessing contests.'"

The attorney general quotes an opinion of the court of appeals of New York, made on August 5, 1904, where it was held "that where a scheme lacks 'the elements of a legitimate business enterprise' it is a lottery."

This opinion relates to all guessing contests and overrules all former opinions in view of such schemes. The opinion sustains the position of the post office department, which has been against guessing contests.

Postmaster General's Statement.

Postmaster General Wynne Tuesday night gave out the following official statement:

"For a number of years the post office department has admitted to the mails advertisement and other matter concerning so-called 'guessing' or 'estimating' contests. The question of whether or not these schemes are lotteries has been several times presented to the attorney general, who held that they were not lotteries within the meaning of the postal lottery act. In view of two recent cases in which the supreme court and the New York court of appeals rendered opinions, the postmaster general felt warranted in again submitting the question to the attorney general. Following the opinions in these two cases, the attorney general now holds that the schemes are lotteries."

The Law Will Be Enforced.

"It is therefore, incumbent upon the post office department to enforce the law under which the postmaster general is authorized, upon evidence satisfactory to him that any person or company is engaged in conducting a lottery or other scheme for the distribution of money by chance to issue an order that all mail addressed to such person or company be returned stamped 'fraudulent.'"

"As a number of legitimate enterprises have adopted these estimating or guessing contests as a means of advertising, and in view of the admission to the mails of matter pertaining to these contests within the last few years, the elimination of these schemes from the mails can not be made immediately absolute. If such a scheme has already been entered upon in good faith, the department will not issue an order that will seriously injure a legitimate business. Each case will be handled separately and no scheme which involves the plan ruled against by the attorney general will hereafter be allowed to commence operations."

LITTLE MEN'S FIGHT.

Young Corbett Knocked Out By "Battling" Nelson in Tenth Round.

San Francisco, Nov. 30.—In the greatest fight witnessed between little men in years "Battling" Nelson, of Chicago, won from "Young Corbett," of Denver, in ten rounds. From the tap of the gong until Corbett's seconds threw up the sponge Nelson was master of the situation at every stage of the game. His infighting was a revelation and the most brilliant witnessed in any ring here. For the last three rounds of the fight Corbett was as helpless as a baby, but he wobbled around groggily and gamely until the repeated calls from around the house to stop the fight caused Harry Tutthill to enter the ring. The fight was over and a new man is in line.

BOTH WENT TO JAIL.

His Own Case and That of His Client Lost By the Lawyer.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 30.—Hewitt Nall, a member of a prominent family and a well-known lawyer, was taken to the workhouse Tuesday afternoon, being unable to pay a fine of $15 and secure bond for $300 for 90 days for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Nall was arrested on the complaint of Mrs. John Williams, who said he forced his way into the house to see her sister, Miss Ida Clarkson. She said that on numerous occasions Nall entered the dining room, and, seating himself at the table, would place a revolver at the side of his plate as a notice to those who might object to his presence. Nall defended his own case.

After his conviction and when he was led to the prisoner's cage a Negro woman informed Bailiff Bosler that Nall had received a fee to defend her son. The court ordered Nall released to take charge of the case. He pleaded eloquently, but had less success than in his own affair, the Negro being fined $19 and put under $300 bond. Lawyer and client went to the workhouse together in the "black maria."

FOREST FIRES RAGING.

Many Homes Near Owingsville, Ky., Are Endangered.

Owingsville, Ky., Nov. 30.—Forest fires are raging in the mountains in the eastern and southern part of this county, and thousands of dollars worth of valuable timber and fencing have been destroyed.

Reports Tuesday night state that several residences are in danger, and parties have been organized to fight the fire. Owing to the severe drought water is very scarce, and only a limited amount can be secured to fight the fire. The flames can be seen from here.

INSANE MAN'S DEED.

Slew His Family of Five and Then Shot Himself in the Head.

Pikeville, Ky., Nov. 30.—A horrible wholesale murder was perpetrated near Shelby, Pike county. Enoch Sloan, a farmer, came home from Shelby and in a drunken fit, it is charged, shot and killed his wife and four small children, and then shot himself through the heart. Neighbors hearing the reports rushed to the scene and were horrified to find all dead except the baby, which expired in a few minutes.

Woman Badly Burned.

Covington, Ky., Nov. 30.—Mrs. Lillian Bowyer, of 2004 Greenup street, was burned Tuesday morning. While washing clothes she poured gasoline into the wash boiler to facilitate her work. An explosion occurred. The screaming victim ran into the yard and seized a wet blanket from the clothes line, into which she wrapped herself. She may recover.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 30.—T. C. Albritton, state revenue agent, Tuesday filed suit against the sinking fund of the city of Louisville to collect taxes for five years on the basis of a valuation of $5,000,000 for each year. The total amount claimed is $181,500.

VEIL BEING LIFTED.

Strange Complication Involved in Failure of the Citizens National Bank, Oberlin.

SUIT AGAINST MRS. CHADWICK.

The President of the Bank Admits That He Personally Assisted in Loaning Her $102,000.

He Further States That There Are Two Checks in the Bank As Security For the Money Loaned Mrs. Chadwick.

Cleveland, O., Nov. 30.—The veil of mystery which has enveloped the banking operations of Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick is being torn aside. There is disclosed an astonishing complication, with possibilities of disclosures of a still more startling nature. H. B. Newton, a banker of Brookline, Mass., sued Mrs. Chadwick for money due on notes given for money loaned. The failure of the Citizens' National bank in Oberlin, O., was the result of money loaned to Mrs. Chadwick by President C. T. Beckwith. The latter now says that he personally assisted in loaning the woman $102,000. He further stated that there are two checks in the bank as security for money loaned Mrs. Chadwick, one for $500,000 and the other for $250,000. It was stated Tuesday that the Newton suit was but one feature of the case and that it probably would be settled before trial.

Mrs. Chadwick was married to the Cleveland doctor, whose name she bears, in 1897, and at that time was known as Mrs. C. L. Hoover, a widow.

The Woman Is in Hiding.

New York, Nov. 30.—Mrs. Chadwick is in New York. She is keeping her address secret, however, and only her attorneys know her whereabouts. It is now said she has notes indorsed by a man worth many millions of dollars. He is said to be one of the three richest men in the United States.

Oberlin, O., Nov. 30.—It was stated here Tuesday on what is believed to be reliable authority that the amount loaned to Mrs. C. L. Chadwick by the Citizens' National bank, of Oberlin, which failed Monday, is $240,000. This is said to be exclusive of the $102,000 loaned by President Beckwith and Cashier Spear personally to Mrs. Chadwick.

Boston, Nov. 30.—Further details of the Chadwick case were furnished a press representative Tuesday night by one legally identified with the present litigation. By this person it was said that Mr. Newton's loan of $190,000 to Mrs. Chadwick was made purely as a business proposition. He continued: "Mr. Newton's judgment, it will be alleged, was influenced by the certificate of Iri Reynolds, secretary and treasurer of the Wade Park Banking Co., of Cleveland, that he held securities belonging to Mrs. Chadwick to the value of $500,000."

Andrew Carnegie's Note.

"A note for $500,000, bearing as its signature the name of 'Andrew Carnegie' was offered as evidence that Mrs. Chadwick's credit was unimpeachable. Mrs. Chadwick, in explanation of the possession of this note, said that on one of his trips to Scotland Mr. Carnegie carried with him a block of her Caledonian railway stock which she desired him to dispose of to the best advantage on the other side of the Atlantic. In lieu of the receipt for the stock Mr. Carnegie, Mrs. Chadwick explained, gave her his note for $500,000."

The exact date on which Mr. Newton advanced Mrs. Chadwick $190,800, it was stated, is not known to any one except the parties directly concerned and their counsel. Payment was not forthcoming at the proper time, it is alleged, and Mr. Newton finally instructed his attorneys to take whatever steps they deemed necessary to secure payment.

The Notes Are Worthless.

Oberlin, O., Nov. 30.—A meeting of the directors of the failed Citizens' bank was held Tuesday night. Director J. R. Randolph made the startling statement that the signature on the collateral notes for $500,000 and $250,000 on which Mrs. Chadwick was loaned money is not worth a dollar. He said he had seen the notes and they are not signed by Andrew Carnegie; that such a story is ridiculous. In his opinion, Mr. Randolph says, the signature does not add a dollar to the value of the paper.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Fair and colder to-night; Thursday fair.

The newspaper fraternity of Maysville is indeed traveling in hard lines this year, from a health standpoint. The situation, perhaps, is not equalled in any other city of same population in the United States.

Colonel George Rosser senior proprietor of the BULLETIN has been ill for more than a year and though he has been almost helpless for many months, he is a patient sufferer and bears his great affliction with wonderful fortitude.

Mr. Thomas A. Davis, editor and proprietor of the Ledger, has also been in poor health for a similar period, though he has not been housed up but a few weeks. His illness, however, is of a very serious nature, and this morning's report from his bedside is not very encouraging to his friends by any means.

Editor M. F. Marsh, of the BULLETIN, has been in declining health for about a year. His friends noticed it, but hesitated to speak of the matter, and he continued at work until he was compelled to give up more than three months ago. He is still confined to his home and we regret to say is not making the rapid recovery hoped for.

It will be seen that both the Ledger and BULLETIN are greatly handicapped in an editorial capacity, but the "boys and girls" who remain in good health are doing their level best to make readable local sheets.

A WOMAN attempted to horsewhip the editor of a Kansas paper one night last week because he dared to print the details in a case in which the woman was implicated. Everybody thought the editor would suppress the matter in his own paper, but he fooled 'em the next day by printing this version of the affair: Here is an item that you thought would not be in the paper:

Last evening at dusk, as the editor was starting for home, he met Mrs. Blank, divorced wife of William Blank, of whom mention was made in these columns recently. She was accompanied by a lady friend, and as the Gazette man started to pass, Mrs. Blank pulled from her cloak a small but effective-looking whip.

The editor of this paper sidestepped and, and what every true gentleman would do, ran forty rods like a white-tailed buck to the office by the back door.

That calm, dispassionate communion which a man holds with a situation in the sixteenth part of a second convinced the man in question that when a lady challenges a gentleman to an athletic contest of any kind he cannot win a sparring match with any grace nor be the victor in a wrestling match with a lady with any credit at all.

But a footrace is one event in the sporting calendar in which any gent may vie his prowess with any lady. And how he did run! Shooting the chutes, leaping the gap or looping the loop are clumsy, dilatory tactics compared with the way the fat old coddler hiked the pike around the back door of this office.

Mr. Harry Carter, whose excellent baritone voice was heard to good advantage as the eminent Doctor Fizz in "King Dodo," will be the "El Capitan" in Sousa's El Capitan Opera Company, at the Washington, Friday, December 2. The company is a large one and has given satisfaction wherever they have played. They carry all of their own special scenery and the costumes are said to be costly and beautiful. Seat sale opens at Ray's Thursday morning.

Brief mention was made in our dispatches yesterday of the burning of Miss Mary Louise Bouldin and her father, Postmaster Bouldin of Millersburg. Later accounts say that she and her father were standing under a swinging lamp in the postoffice when it exploded and the burning oil flew over them. Her hair took fire and she ran toward a door leading outside, when Town Marshal Howard met her with a blanket, which he wrapped around her and probably saved her life. Her face, neck and back were horribly burned and physicians hold little hope for her recovery. The burns her father received are severe, but not serious.

EXCERPTS

From Memorial Tributes to the Late Colonel W. C. P. Breckinridge.

The memorial address of Col. John Allen at the meeting of the Lexington bar made a profound impression. "No man," says Colonel Bronston, "has ever had or will ever have such a eulogy pronounced upon him."

Governor Bradley says of the dead statesman—"He was the most distinguished man of all his illustrious family." Bourke Cochran writes—"He was the greatest orator of his generation."

Colonel John Allen says: "As a lawyer he was learned and profound; a consummate master of the elementary principles of the common law and thoroughly familiar with the cases. As a nisi prius lawyer he had no superior in the State."

General Duke says: "As a soldier and an officer he had few equals."

Mayor Combs says: "He towered far above the average citizen. His advice was always valuable and always free, and the adviser always stood for the right. He was Lexington's greatest and most progressive citizen."

Senator Lindsay says of the great publicist: "The public services of Colonel Breckinridge were marked by exceptional capacity. In his death Kentucky loses one of the most intellectual of her sons."

The Louisville Herald in a finished eulogy, says with curious felicity: "His mind was like the pitcher of Baucis and Philemon, that filled itself as it emptied."

The Lexington Herald, in a late impression, gives a view, from a photograph, of his last resting-place banked high with autumnal flowers; and, beneath, the impressive legend:

"And the dead was left with his Glory and his God, beneath a wilderness of flowers, until that day when finite minds behold the Infinite and revel in a Glory of the Risen Christ."

How significant and true and touching as now, and here inscribed, the immortal Shakespearean lines:

"His life was gentle and the elements, So mixed in him that NATURE might stand up And say to all the world, 'This was a MAN!'"

Miss Katie Bierley, who has been seriously ill for the past few weeks is able to be up.

The new Oddfellows hall at Mayslick will be dedicated Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Appropriate addresses will be delivered. All persons who are interested in the order are cordially invited to attend.

Relatives here have received news of the death of Mrs. Emma Baldwin Pattison, at her home at Latham, Mo., Friday. Mrs. Pattison was about thirty-five years of age and was the daughter of Mr. Robert Baldwin, formerly of this county.

In the event that Judge Bennett gets the certificate of election as Congressman from this district a County Judge will have to be appointed by Governor Beckham. Anticipating that Bennett will get it, William T. Cole, the only Democratic lawyer in Greenup, has announced for the place.

There are several prospective applicants for the Collectorship at Covington now held by George Lieberth, but there is said to be little chance for a change. Mr. Lieberth is the close personal and political friend of R. P. Ernst, Chairman of the Republican State Committee, and Mr. Yerkes' right-hand bower.

The following relatives and friends from a distance attended the funeral of the late John B. Orr Sunday—Mrs. S. N. Meyer of Dayton, O., Mr. W. T. Orr of Cincinnati, Miss Eliza Orr of Connells-ville, Pa., Mrs. Lizzie Rutz of Ripley, O., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sauer of Paris, and Mrs. Ida Batterton, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sauer and Mrs. Mayfield of Lexington and Mr. William Sauer of Paris.

Many changes effecting C. and O. officials will go into effect December 1st. J. W. Haynes, Assistant Superintendent of the Cincinnati division, with headquarters at Covington, is promoted to the Assistant Superintendency of the Lexington and Big Sandy districts; J. R. Cary, Trainmaster of the New River coal district, to Assistant Superintendency of the Huntington division. The Kentucky division of the C. and O. railway will be divided and the territory between Cincinnati and Russell will be the Cincinnati division. The Lexington and Big Sandy districts will hereafter comprise the new Kentucky division.

ECONOMY

Is invariably the result when in buying eatables you buy the best. Never buy anything to eat when not good because it looks cheap. It is dear at any price. In these days of adulteration and low priced foods it becomes the duty of every one to scan closely what he buys and reject everything of a suspicious character. In order to be on the safe side always buy of the experienced dealer who knows the good from the bad and who will not handle impure and poisonous goods. I am now opening an unusually large and most attractive stock of high grade goods for the fall and winter trade.

New Crop. New Orleans Molasses

direct from the plantation to the consumer. No better made. FINEST SORGHUM ever sold in Maysville. The only trouble is in getting as much of it as I can sell. My stock of CANNED GOODS is immense—bought direct from the packers. When prices were very much lower than they are now I bought heavily of Green Coffee and am in position to name very attractive prices on either green or roasted goods. I get in each week a supply of freshly roasted goods from the roasting house in New York where I have my Coffee for roasting stored, and can sell you better Coffee at 15, 20 and 25 cents than others sell at 20, 25 and 30 cents. My stock of Teas—green and black is always full and complete.

PERFECTION FLOUR

is the finest flour sold in Maysville. In fact it has no superior anywhere. My stock of Apples, Oranges, Lemons, Bananas, Figs, Citron, Orange and Lemon Peel, Dates, Raisins, Atmore's Mince Meat and Prun Pudding, Prunes, Buckwheat Flour, Maple Syrup, White Clover Honey, Cereals of all kinds, Hominy, Beans &c. of the very best. Lodenburger's Crab Cider, Baltimore Oysters in bulk and cans, Celery, Cranberries, Poultry and Game, in fact everything good to eat of the very best. Look out for my holiday special and when you come to our city you are specially invited to make my house your headquarters. Remember, I buy all kinds of country produce such as Butter, Eggs, Poultry, Game &c. Will buy one hundred extra cured old Country Hams in weight from ten to fifteen pounds each.
